

Psalm of the Birds

Movement of no color rise of sun and temperature cool breeze in the morning light

Give thanks for a new day
a new beginning
A movement forward
a letter on the page of evolution that which is alive is saved.

We are all connected.
Subjects, not objects.
A great silent revolution politics beware.

A new history is being written.
not anthropocentrism
"chosen ones," for all are chosen.
Being chosen is being connected,
web of life, music of silence.

Heard with eyes Clean and fire within a new revolution
subtle, humble
decision
evolution
